MT CY	How KidZ L.E.A.R.N. Best	Experience practical ways to help your students develop a growing relationship with Jesus as you teach them in ways children really learn: Learner-centered, Experiential, Applicable, Relational and Narrowly-focused lessons.	Gordon and Becki West
MT CY	Teaching for Changed Lives: Applying the Scripture With Kids	Applying the scripture to become more and more like Christ leads to changed lives in contrast to simply “doing what we ought to do.” This workshop looks specifically at developing teachers who model, minister and motivate kids to apply the scripture to become Christ-like.	John Tietsort
MT CY	Discipline in the Christian Classroom: A Fresh and Refreshing New Look	This workshop will present a fresh, positive approach to maintaining discipline in Sunday School. Many concrete examples and much practical, helpful advice will be provided.	Richard Patterson, Jr.
MT CY	A G.L.A.D. Preschool Class	The keys to a successful preschool class are: Grab the attention of your kids; lead your class with management skills that dazzle, address discipline issues effectively and demonstrate God’s love in what you say and do.	Velvet Lozada
OD	Share the Gospel So That It “Sticks”	The Bible clearly tells us how to share the gospel in a way that it will “stick” – you’ll learn the three essentials in this workshop. You will also learn how to evaluate where an unbeliever is on a “gospel-understanding scale” and a “gospel-receptivity scale.” These concepts will be of great value to you and your church members to effectively share your faith with unbelieving friends.	Fred Seiferth and Gil Thomas
PG A	Triumph Over Fear	Our world is paralyzed with fear. World events can strike fear even in the hearts of Christians. This workshop will teach you practical ways to overcome fear as we look forward to Christ’s return.	Dr. Catherine M. Barshinger
PG A	Beware of Unsanctified Thoughts	The focal point of this workshop will be on taking control of unsanctified (toxic) thoughts that can hinder you from living consecrated for service. If you participate in this workshop, you will never be the same!	Dr. Roberta Bright
PG A	Messages From the Seven Churches of Revelation	In Revelation 2-3, John revealed timeless truths to the pastors and members of the 7 churches in Asia minor. In this workshop, we will look at photos of the archaeological sites and discuss how the messages and warnings apply to each of us today.	Ercelle Mayner
PG A	The Next Step of Vision	Got Vision? Good! Now it is time to do something about it. Gain practical knowledge to help you jumpstart the future by utilizing the skills, talents and resources necessary to make it happen. Your action is linked to your vision’s fruition!	Hewlette Pearson
PG A	Spiritual Formation 101	This workshop will provide the basic knowledge and necessary skill sets that enable leaders to address the spiritual formation of the members of their ministry. This session addresses the various dimensions of personal spiritual growth needed to become a mature, fully-committed and serving disciple of Jesus. “Thinking, Being, and Doing” growth will be considered.	Dr. Douglas Fombelle
PG A	Resolving Conflict in a Way That Honors the Relationship	Participants will learn about 5 types of conflict styles, how to recognize the conflict styles of others and how to identify and avoid negative styles of conflict resolution.	James Davis
PG A	Thriving in Adversity	Life is difficult “outside the garden.” Adversity hits us daily and often threatens to knock us off our moorings. Developing a personal theology of suffering is essential to YOUR living consecrated to God.	Joan Nordby
PG A	How to Leave a Tremendous Legacy!	How we face death is as important as how we live life. This workshop will focus on how we all leave a legacy. What will be yours? Learn that no act is too small to create a legacy, it’s never too late to leave a legacy, nor to use your unique gifts in creating your legacy.	Tracey C. Jones
PG A	Living Out of the Rut	If your vehicle has ever been stuck in a rut, you know how frustrating it can be: You move a few feet forward, and then slip back again. Sometimes, life is no different. In this session, we will look at Luke 18:35-43 for examples that will help us live out of the ruts we sometimes find ourselves in.	Rex Tignor

MT SI	Music Ministry 101	This workshop explores the I Chronicles 25 origins of music ministry and the implications of God's original design for contemporary Music Ministry.	Rodney Teal
OD	Local Missions: Getting More Out of Your Vision	Local missions is more than gathering a group of people together and preaching a message or handing out food. If done well, you will be prepared to rescue, rehabilitate, and spiritually develop your city. You will receive training steps and practical ways to implement local missions from your church.	Bob Tome
OD	Share the Gospel With People of Non-Christian Faiths	Do you have friends or neighbors from non-Christian faith-subcultures? Do you want to learn a simple non-confrontational process for discovering what they believe and how to "get the gospel through to them"? In this workshop, you'll learn about "worldview noise" that interferes with our gospel communications and how to "peel" an unbeliever's "worldview onion" to get to the core of their beliefs.	Fred Seiferth and Gil Thomas
OD	Vacation Bible School (Evangelism and Service)	Let's warm up a little and share ideas with each other on ways to make this year's VBS even more fun and meaningful for everyone!	Linda Mummert
PG A	Guilt: True or False?	People are weighed down with false guilt over past sins which have been forgiven. This workshop will teach you how to differentiate between true guilt over sin and the false guilt that comes from the accusations of the enemy.	Dr. Catherine M. Barshinger
PG A	Lord, Can You Heal the Hurt?	Sometimes life can throw some pretty devastating punches that can cause us to "throw in the towel." But don't you dare give in or give up! In this workshop, you will learn how the meal offering (as spoken of in Lev. 2) can bring healing to every aspect of your life.	Dr. Roberta Bright
PG A OD	Loving on the Edge	Do you want to do more than just enough for the kingdom? Here is your opportunity to gain practical know-how skills in being creative and expressive in your love and use it as an evangelism tool both for the church and the secular world.	Hewlette Pearson

A variety of worship resources will also be introduced.	Dean F. Schultz
OD	He Who Hath No Fingers!	The secular world says all homeless are lazy people who don't want to work. Unfortunately, many Christians also subscribe to this myth. During his annual Operation Uplift, Jim Hogsett actually lives with those on the streets of New York, Washington and Memphis. In this workshop, he tells the plain truth about these individuals and how to remove personal barriers, ministering in specific ways to them so they can escape the streets. Included is a case study of one such individual who was put on the streets by his mother and what can be done without any fingers!	Jim Hogsett
PG A	Lies, Lies and More Lies!	Jesus said this about Satan, "When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies." More and more of God's children are falling prey to lies rather than standing firmly on the truth of God's Word. How can this be? Come, learn how to help people battle these lies with God's divine power and to remember WHOSE they truly are!	Cindy Foor
